 All JD students must also complete the following classes in any semester to qualify for graduation: Legal Profession (L4425), Evidence (L4235) (also a pre-requisite for several upper level courses) and Administrative Law (L4025). Must also complete Upper Level Legal Writing, Public Service Requirement and Perspective Elective (if enrolled prior to fall 2010). JD students will take all remaining elective courses in their fourth year (if necessary).

Note: The General JD/MPP is reflected. If a student wishes to add a concentration additional courses may be required. Please speak with an advisor.

To earn a dual degree students must complete 80 JD semester hours and 50 MPP quarter hours.
