Please briefly explain why you are interested in the University of Denver's 6-Year Bachelor/JD Program:

Admissibility to Practice

Are there any charges currently pending against you in any jurisdiction or have you ever been convicted of, or pled guilty to, any violation of law other than minor traffic violations? If yes, attach a statement with dates and full details, including the specific action and final determination.

Yes No

Have you ever been dropped, suspended, warned, placed on academic or disciplinary probation, disciplined, expelled, or requested or advised to resign from any postsecondary school, college, university, professional school, or law school? If yes, attach a statement with dates and full details, including specific action and final determination.

Yes No

You are hereby advised that there are character, fitness, and other qualifications for admission to the bar. Each state has established character and fitness requirements. You are encouraged, prior to matriculation, to determine what those requirements are in the state(s) you may intend to practice law. In rare cases bar candidates, after graduating from law school and passing the bar examination, have been denied admission to the bar on character and fitness grounds.

I acknowledge the above statement

Additional Required Documents

In order for your application to be considered complete, you must submit the following documents to the Denver Law Admissions Office. Documents can be emailed to admissions@law.du.edu.

1. Resume - should list employment experience, educational background and extracurricular and community activities. It should also include any honors and awards that you have received. Please include dates for all items on your resume.
2. Personal Statement - Your statement is your opportunity to explain to the committee why you should be selected for admission to Denver Law. Topics that the committee may consider helpful in evaluating your qualifications may include:
 - Significant personal experiences beyond what may be reflected in your transcripts and resume.
 - Characteristics and experiences that you will bring to Denver Law and the legal profession that distinguish you from other applicants.
 - Long-range career plans and goals that you intend to pursue with your law degree.
 - The intellectual contribution you will make to the classroom.

Equal Opportunity Statement

The University of Denver is an Equal Opportunity Institution. It is the policy of the University not to discriminate in the admission of students, in the provision of services, or in employment on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information, or disability. The University prohibits all discrimination, harassment and retaliation, and complies with all applicable federal, state and local laws, regulations and Executive Orders.

Inquiries concerning allegations of discrimination based on any of the above factors may be referred to the University of Denver Office of Equal Opportunity, Mary Reed Building, Room 422, 2199 S. University Blvd., Denver, CO 80208. Phone: 303-871-7436. Fax: 303-871-3656. For more information, please call the above number or see the website at www.du.edu/deo. You also may contact the Office of Equal Opportunity with concerns regarding determinations of religious or disability accommodations and/or issues about access.

I acknowledge the above statement
