ORAL HISTORY of Professor Emeritus John Carver

DU Law professor John Carver retired from regular teaching in 2007 but his impact still lives on at the Sturm College of Law. Click here to watch the first in an eight part series chronicling the experiences of one of DU's finest professors.

ALUMNI RESOURCES

The Alumni Career Network Online

The Alumni Career Network (ACN) program enables students to contact participating alumni and discuss specific practice areas, the legal profession in other cities and the overall benefits (and drawbacks) of a career in law. This program is a wonderful way to assist the next generation of DU Law alumni. Please visit the Alumni Career Network website to register.

Keep Up To Date On DU Law Faculty Research

The Sturm College of Law recently joined the Social Science Research Network (SSRN), an on-line network of research databases that distributes information about scholarly research throughout the world. Subscribers to the DU Law Legal Studies Research Paper Series receive periodic email updates with the titles and abstracts of both finished articles and draft articles written by DU Law faculty. This is a quick and easy way to keep up to date on the most current research being conducted and disseminated by our faculty scholars. If you would like to subscribe to this FREE service, please visit the SSRN website. If you have any questions about subscribing, please contact the Manager of Educational Technology, Jessica Hogan.

Pioneer Legal Internship Program

With more than 400 placements a year, the University of Denver Sturm College of Law's internship program is an effective and comprehensive bridge to take students from law student to lawyer. Interns work with corporate in-house counsel, private firms, government and non-profit agencies, as well as with judges at all levels. The program welcomes new intern sites. For more information please visit the Internship Program website.

Legislative Process Digital Collection

The Westminster Law Library at the University of Denver Sturm College of Law is proud to announce the release of a new digital collection, Access for All: Providing a Window to the Legislative Process for Colorado's Citizens. This site provides searchable access to all Colorado Legislative Council Research Publications, links to relevant legislation for newer publications, and information on performing legislative history research at the state and federal level.

For more information, please visit the Westminster Law Library.
