Denver Bar Association Mentor Program

Every job has a learning curve and the legal profession is no exception. Why not enhance your learning curve with the help of a mentor? The Denver Bar Association (DBA) has created a new mentor program that pairs a less experienced attorney (5 years or less) with a more seasoned attorney in a collaborative relationship. The DBA Mentoring Program provides a unique opportunity to regularly meet and discuss the decision-making process about managing a practice, important factors to consider when accepting a client, client communications, handling difficult clients or opposing counsel and work-life balance issues.
