Journal of Energy & Natural Resources Law comes to Denver Law

Denver Law is the new home of the prestigious Journal of Energy & Natural Resources Law. The quarterly journal is published by the International Bar Association's Section on Energy, Environment, Natural Resources and Infrastructure Law. This is the first time the 30-year-old journal has been based at a university in the United States.

Mock Interviewers Needed

Tuesday, January 31, 2012

The Office of Career Development & Opportunities (CDO) is hosting a Mock Interview Day on Tuesday, January 31, 2012. The purpose of the Mock Interview Day is to provide students with an opportunity to refine their interviewing skills by interacting with practicing attorneys. The CDO is seeking volunteer attorneys to interview law students at one of three times on this day. Your investment of time and energy in this program will assist us in equipping our students with the skills necessary to compete in today's legal job market. Volunteer interviewers may sign up for one of the following two-hour time periods: 8:00 - 10:00 a.m., Noon - 2:00 p.m. and 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. Each volunteer interviewer will meet with four students at 30-minute intervals and each interview will take approximately 20-25 minutes, allowing five to ten minutes for a personal critique and discussion of the student's performance and ways he/she might improve. If you are available to volunteer, please RSVP by Friday, January 13, 2012, to Gayle Keahey at gkeahey@law.du.edu.

Alumni Resources

Educating Tomorrow's Lawyers

Last August, DU's Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System (IAALS) and the Sturm College of Law launched Educating Tomorrow's Lawyers, (ETL) an initiative which leverages the Carnegie Model (see the Carnegie Foundation's 2007 Report, Educating Lawyers) and the work of law schools and professors committed to legal education reform to align legal education with the needs of an evolving profession. By providing a supported platform for shared learning, experimentation, ongoing measurement and collective implementation, ETL is putting knowledge into practice. Check out the ETL site for an engaging video, "How Do You Engage Your Students?" featuring Prof. Roberto Corrada's Labor Law class.

Legal Externship Program

With more than 400 placements a year, the Denver Law's Legal Externship Program is an effective and comprehensive bridge to take students from law student to lawyer. Externs work with corporate in-house counsel, private firms, government and non-profit agencies, as well as with judges at all levels. As a member of the Denver Law alumni network, you can play an important role in the development of future practicing lawyers. For more information, please visit the Legal Externship Program website.

Denver Law Resume Book

The University of Denver Sturm College of Law's Office of Career Development & Opportunities (CDO) is proud to announce the release of their new Resume Book. This resource contains resumes from recent Denver Law graduates which are keyword searchable so employers can quickly identify graduates that fit their needs. The CDO also can help search for a specific 2011 Denver Law graduate that meet certain employee needs via its new Job Matching program. If you know of an opportunity that may be a good fit for one of our graduates, please contact Assistant Dean for Career Opportunities Eric Bono at 303.871.6124 or ebono@law.du.edu.

The University of Denver Colorado Law Project

In Colorado, as in most states, direct access to legal information is limited by a number of factors. Some of those factors include the location of law libraries, access to legal collections and databases, ability to pay for fee based services, the sophistication of the information seeker's searching ability, and familiarity and understanding of legal information and processes. Because of these barriers and the nature of today's e-society, many people turn to the Internet for answers. Responding to this need, the University of Denver launched the Colorado Law Project, the premier online gateway to Colorado's legal information and resources for use by the general public.

The Alumni Volunteer Network Online

The Alumni Volunteer Network \(AVN\) program enables students to contact participating alumni and discuss specific practice areas, the legal profession in other cities and the overall benefits (and drawbacks) of a career in law. This program is a wonderful way to assist the next generation of DU Law alumni. Please visit us online to register.

Keep up with DU Law Faculty Research

The Sturm College of Law recently joined the Social Science Research Network \(SSRN\), an on-line network of research databases that distributes information about scholarly research throughout the world. Subscribers to the DU Law Legal Studies Research Paper Series receive periodic email updates with the titles and abstracts of both finished articles and draft articles written by DU Law faculty. This is a quick and easy way to keep up to date on the most current research being conducted and disseminated by our faculty scholars. If you would like to subscribe to this FREE service, please visit the SSRN website. If you have any questions about subscribing, please contact the Manager of Educational Technology, Jessica Hogan.

Legislative Process Digital Collection

The Westminster Law Library at the University of Denver Sturm College of Law is proud to announce the release of a new digital collection, Access for All: Providing a Window to the Legislative Process for Colorado's Citizens. This site provides searchable access to all Colorado Legislative Council Research Publications, links to relevant legislation for newer publications, and information on performing legislative history research at the state and federal level. For more information, please visit the Westminster Law Library.

Stay connected with your classmates and other DU alumni

If you're a registered member of DU's free alumni online community, you can update your contact information, find other DU alumni, "bookmark" your alumni friends and classmates, and submit class notes.
