CDO Mock Interview Day- Volunteers Needed

Tuesday, January 29, 2013

The Office of Career Development & Opportunities (CDO) is hosting a Mock Interview Day on Tuesday, January 29, 2013. The purpose of the Mock Interview Day is to provide students with an opportunity to refine their interviewing skills by interacting with practicing attorneys. We are seeking volunteer attorneys to interview law students at one of three times on this day. Your investment of time and energy in this program will assist us in equipping our students with the skills necessary to compete in today's legal job market. Volunteer interviewers may sign up for one of the following two-hour time periods: 8:00 - 10:00 a.m., Noon - 2:00 p.m., 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. Each volunteer interviewer will meet with four students at 30-minute intervals. We anticipate each interview will take approximately 20-25 minutes, allowing five to ten minutes for a personal critique and discussion of the student's performance and ways he/she might improve. If you are available to volunteer as a mock interviewer on January 29, please RSVP by Monday, January 7, to Associate Director Gayle Keahey at gkeahey@law.du.edu.

Seeking Volunteer Judges for Jessup International Law Moot Competition

Calling all alumni of the Jessup International Law Moot and other International Legal Studies Program!

For its third consecutive year, the International Legal Studies Program at Denver Law is hosting the Rocky Mountain Regional Rounds of the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition. Now in its 54th year, the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot is the world's largest moot court competition, with participants from over 550 law schools in more than 80 countries. The competition is a simulation of a fictional dispute between countries before the International Court of Justice, the judicial organ of the United Nations. From February 15 thru 17, 2013, twenty four teams from around the country will travel to DU to compete in semi-final rounds in the hopes that they will end up in the world finals in Washington, D.C.

We seek individuals with expertise or interest in international law or appellate advocacy to judge rounds for the Moot. This is a great opportunity to meet pro bono service requirements, to reconnect with old friends and colleagues, and to network with other legal professionals in your field of practice. For more information, or if you wish to judge in the competition, please fill out this online survey or contact Karlyn K. Shorb at kshorb@law.du.edu or 303-871-6655.

Denver University Law Review Annual Symposium

On January 31–February 2, 2013, the Denver University Law Review will host its 2013 annual symposium, “Forty Years Since Keyes v. School District No. 1: Equality of Education Opportunity and the Legal Construction of Modern Metropolitan America.” Emanating from Denver, Colorado, Keyes v. School District No. 1 was first school-desegregation case from “a major city outside of the South” to reach the United States Supreme Court. As such, it compelled the Justices to begin to formulate constitutional principles that would be applicable to an America that had dramatically changed since the Court’s 1954 Brown v. Board of Education decision. By examining the forty years since Keyes, the symposium will highlight how and in what ways lawyers, judges, educators, policy makers, and citizens think about equality of opportunity in the multiracial and metropolitan areas of the United States in the twenty-first century. All are welcome, and CLE credit will be available for the various panels, lectures, and workshops. Visit the symposium website more information or to register.

Alumni Resources

Educating Tomorrow's Lawyers

Last August, DU's Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System (IAALS) and the Sturm College of Law launched Educating Tomorrow's Lawyers, (ETL) an initiative which leverages the Carnegie Model (see the Carnegie Foundation's 2007 Report, Educating Lawyers) and the work of law schools and professors committed to legal education reform to align legal education with the needs of an evolving profession. By providing a supported platform for shared learning, experimentation, ongoing measurement and collective implementation, ETL is putting knowledge into practice. Check out the ETL site for engaging videos, including one from LP Professor David Thomson, which details a "whole course simulation" of his design, the Discovery Practicum.

New Legal Career Employment Guides from the Westminster Law Library

Denver Law's Westminster Law Library has new legal career research guides available online: Career Resources for Law Students & New Attorneys, Law Librarianship and Starting Your Own Law Practice.

Legal Externship Program

With more than 400 placements a year, the Denver Law's Legal Externship Program is an effective and comprehensive bridge to take students from law student to lawyer. Externs work with corporate in-house counsel, private firms, government and non-profit agencies, as well as with judges at all levels. As a member of the Denver Law alumni network, you can play an important role in the development of future practicing lawyers. For more information, please visit the Legal Externship Program website.

Join the Professional Mentoring Program

Participants in Denver Law's nationally recognized Professional Mentoring Program spend approximately 13 hours during an academic year mentoring first and second year law students about practical legal skills. Visit us online for more information or to apply to be a mentor.

RMLUI 2012 Home Study Program

The Rocky Mountain Land Use Institute is pleased to announce the RMLUI 2012 Home Study Sessions! These sessions are the perfect opportunity to learn about up-and-coming issues like wildfire risks, small dwellings, and oil and gas development. We've put together six blocks of videos, as well as stand-alone sessions for Ethics for Attorneys and Ethics for Planners, all of which have been accredited for more than 50 continuing education credits. For more information about the Home Study Program, descriptions of the sessions, or to register, please visit RMLUI online.

Colorado Law Project at the University of Denver

In Colorado, as in most states, direct access to legal information is limited by a number of factors. Some of those factors include the location of law libraries, access to legal collections and databases, ability to pay for fee based services, the sophistication of the information seeker's searching ability, and familiarity and understanding of legal information and processes. Because of these barriers and the nature of today's e-society, many people turn to the Internet for answers. Responding to this need, the University of Denver launched the Colorado Law Project, the premier online gateway to Colorado's legal information and resources for use by the general public.

The Alumni Volunteer Network Online

The Alumni Volunteer Network (AVN) program enables students to contact participating alumni and discuss specific practice areas, the legal profession in other cities and the overall benefits (and drawbacks) of a career in law. This program is a wonderful way to assist the next generation of DU Law alumni. Please visit us online to register.

Keep up with DU Law Faculty Research

The Sturm College of Law recently joined the Social Science Research Network (SSRN), an on-line network of research databases that distributes information about scholarly research throughout the world. Subscribers to the DU Law Legal Studies Research Paper Series receive periodic email updates with the titles and abstracts of both finished articles and draft articles written by DU Law faculty. This is a quick and easy way to keep up to date on the most current research being conducted and disseminated by our faculty scholars. If you would like to subscribe to this FREE service, please visit the SSRN website. If you have any questions about subscribing, please contact the Manager of Educational Technology, Jessica Hogan.

Legislative Process Digital Collection

The Westminster Law Library at the University of Denver Sturm College of Law is proud to announce the release of a new digital collection, Access for All: Providing a Window to the Legislative Process for Colorado's Citizens. This site provides searchable access to all Colorado Legislative Council Research Publications, links to relevant legislation for newer publications, and information on performing legislative history research at the state and federal level. For more information, please visit the Westminster Law Library.
