

Resume

KENDOR P. JONES
WELBORN SULLIVAN MECK & TOOLEY, P.C.
821 – 17th Street, Suite 500
Denver, Colorado 80202
Phone: 303-376-4485
Facsimile: 303-832-2366
Email: Kjones@wsmtlaw.com

- Areas of Expertise: Oil and gas law; natural resources law; commercial transactions; corporate law; corporate governance.
- Employment: 1994 - Present: Shareholder, Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley, P.C.
- 1998 – Present: Adjunct Professor of Oil and Gas Law, University of Denver Sturm College of Law.
- 1971-1994: Assistant General Counsel, Union Pacific Corporation (1971-1982) New York, N.Y.; Union Pacific Resources Company (1982-1994) Ft. Worth, Texas and Denver, Colorado.
- 1967-1971: Associate Attorney, Clark, Carr & Ellis; Casey, Tyre, Wallace & Bannerman, New York, N.Y.
- Education: University of Virginia (B.A., 1964; J.D., 1967).
- Publications and Activities: Co-Author, "Chained Gates and No Trespassing Signs: Dealing with Wary Landowners in a Brave New World," 51 Rocky MT. Min. L. Inst. 7-1 (2005); Co-Author, "The 'Perfect' Oil and Gas Lease, Revisited", DAPL 29th Annual Fall Institute (2002); "Divestitures - from the Seller's Perspective," DAPL 25th Annual Fall Institute (1998); "Due Diligence and Closing Issues," Oil & Gas Acquisitions Institute, Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation (1995); "Restrictions on Access and Surface/Subsurface Trespass Involving Exploration and Production Technologies," 40 Rocky MT. Min. L. Inst. 20-1 (1994); Co-Author, "Subsurface Trespass and Seismic Options," 11th Annual Advanced Oil, Gas and Mineral Law Course, State Bar of Texas (1993); Oil and Gas Program Chairman, 39th Annual Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Institute, 1993.
- Memberships and Awards: Colorado, Texas and New York State Bars; American Bar Association; Council of Colorado Bar Association Natural Resources and Energy Law Section; Colorado Bar Association Board of Governors; Fellow, Colorado Bar Foundation; Trustee, Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation; The Best Lawyers in America, 2007 and 2008; Who's Who in American Law, 2007-2008; 5280 Magazine Super Lawyer 2006-2008.