If you are approved to participate in an externship for credit that is located greater than 60 miles outside of the Denver metropolitan area or doing an externship for credit after participating in a Denver Law sponsored study abroad program, you will be placed in the “Out-of-State” seminar class instead of a practice type specific seminar. You will be required to attend 2 intensive days of instruction; on May 19th from 12 to 5 pm and May 20th from 1 to 5 pm. There will be no excused absences from these dates and you must be physically present. If you are unable to attend, you will not be able to earn credit for your externship.

In addition, during the course of the summer, you will have a reflective component that will consist of blogs, discussion boards and/or journals and you will meet remotely with one of our faculty members for at least 1 hour. If you are a first-time extern, you will also need to attend orientation from 9 to 12pm on May 20th with all other first-time externs. Please note: this is a new format for this year and this is only for externships that fall into the two categories described above.
