

AUTHORIZATION TO RECORD & RELEASE
MOTHERHOOD CONFERENCE, MARCH 2010

In consideration for my appearing as a presenter at the Motherhood Conference, to be held on March 12-13, 2010; I, _____, authorize and release Colorado Seminary, which owns and operates the University of Denver and its Sturm College of Law (collectively, the "University") to record, broadcast, photograph, and otherwise reproduce visual and audio recordings of my presentation(s) on any media of its choosing.

I hereby grant a perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive, and royalty-free license to the University to reproduce, distribute, and create derivative works from any written materials that I submit to the University in connection with my presentation(s).

In signing this authorization and release, I understand that the University may use such recordings, together with, or separate from, derivative works created from the written material I may submit for such purposes as development of educational resources, for purposes of planning future programs and development at the University, and for such other not for profit uses as the University may determine are necessary and consistent with its educational mission, provided that any publication outside the University of derivative works created pursuant hereto shall include appropriate recognition of me.

I hereby waive any claim of ownership to the recordings or the derivative works and convey and assign any rights in them that I may have to the University.
