Did you know: Most of the seats in Coors Field are dark green but the seats in the 20th row of the upper deck are purple. This purple row of seats marks Denver's one mile high elevation point.

Join your peers at the Colorado Rockies game on Friday, August 19th as they take on the Los Angeles Dodgers. The game begins at 6:40 p.m. at Colorado's beautiful Coors Field. Tickets are FREE and available on a first come first serve basis. To get your ticket (available to Sturm College of Law students only) see any member of the Student Bar Association or visit the SBA table during orientation week.

You can get to Coors Field using the light rail! Check out the RTD website at <http://www.rtd-denver.com/> for routes and ticket prices.
