APPROVE 2011-2012 BUDGET; SEE ATTACHED

Casey: Finance Committee met two weeks ago to review all finance requests from the organizations. See attachment for process. Factors: What is requested, numbers of students in organizations. We go line by line to see each thing requested. ADD FACTORS Actual budget: Line by line everything is almost the same as last year. The biggest differences were that we are not presuming that the bookstore is going to generate us any revenue. I am also lowering the rollover from last year. Student orgs got a little bit less. President's is lower a little.
Unanimous; passes.

- V. Jessica Campbell
 - a. Travel Request
 - i. Handout
 - ii. Dual Degree student and is getting her Masters from International Studies. There is a lot of overlap between law and reconstruction. Applied to a symposium on conflict prevention. 89 people in the world get invited, it is a high level training symposium. It is $6,000 just to get, without airfare and such. Return benefit: having a student in a high level symposium broadens the scope of contacts in the world. Especially for international students. I can do student presentations, talk to student groups, or any other information sharing that you would like me to do.
 - iii. Chad: Money from anywhere else?
 - 1. This is contingent of my acceptance so I hurried to get into this meeting since it is the last one. I do have organizations and schools around DU that I am going to look for in order to get money. I find out Monday.
 - iv. John: The maximum we can give is $400.
