- III. Approve Minutes from 2/23/10
  - a. Unanimous; passes.
- IV. Dean Katz
  - a. New initiative through student affairs. I spoke to Dean Vigil about our advising system, or lack of system. Several people around the building have good advice as to what classes to take and how to organize their academic career. We want to find a more systemic way to provide advising.
  - b. I want to introduce you to Eric Bono, our new Assistant Dean of Career Services.
    - i. I will be introducing myself school wide in an e-mail in the next few days.
    - ii. Core mission is to instill in students the skills you need to identify the type of career opportunities you want to pursue and helping you do so. Can we be more active in helping students find specific jobs?
    - iii. Ideas/Goals:
      - 1. Help a significant people get jobs and help a significant number of employers to find employees; we can build loyalty with them for future hiring needs.
      - 2. We are pushing back on employers who only want the top 10%.
      - 3. How do we develop a system of keeping records so we can quickly identify people who are interested in particular areas of law when jobs are posted.
      - 4. 3L exit interviews.
    - iv. Melina: I like the idea of the exit interviews. When will these start?
      - 1. Early April.
- V. Social Committee; Barrister's Ball
  - a. We can sell tickets tomorrow and Friday on the second floor. Next week we will be on Student Street. We have 500 to sell. Cash or check only. $40.

Kevin: No, it is just a sub-chapter.

Cindy: Is this coming from the ABA fund?

John: Yes.

Alan: We have funded this type of trip before.

Unanimous; passes.

Environmental Law Conference

-Provide funding for students through Environmental Law Clinic?

Recommendation: $1050

Casey: They invite students to go to this every year. I think it the largest environmental law event in the US every year. There are 13 students that want to go. We would be looking at a lot of requests for this event from student orgs so I have been thinking how to do this. The finance committee was to approve the maximum amount we would give an org, give it to the clinic, and they can figure out how to divvy that out.

Chris moves to approve $1,050 to be used the way discussed; Melina seconds.

Tom: This will be the end of requests for this event?

Casey: Yes.

Alan amends the motion to add that this is the maximum amount we give out; Cindy seconds.

In favor of amendment:

Eric: 15 people are going.

Christina: This was not requested by the clinic. Everyone should be given money.

Eric: It would be given equally between everyone.

In favor of approving all money be equally given out to the students: 16; abstention: 1; passes.
