

DENVER UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW

Volume 62

1985

Issue 3 & 4

| | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|-----|
| Preface | Board of Editors | vii |
| Tribute to Dean Daniel S. Hoffman | James L. Winokur | 733 |
| Dan Hoffman—A Unique Person | Alex S. Keller | 739 |
| ARTICLES | | |
| Civil Action for Return of Property: “Anomalous” Federal Jurisdiction in Search of Justification | William R. Slomanson | 741 |
| The Federal Due Process and Equal Protection Rights of Non-Indian Civil Litigants in Tribal Courts After Santa Clara Pueblo v. Martinez | Gregory Schultz | 761 |
| NOTES | | |
| Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc. v. Byrd : The Unraveling of the Intertwining Doctrine | | 789 |
| Principles & Law of Colorado’s Nontributary Ground Water | | 809 |
| COMMENTS | | |
| Austin v. Litvak , Colorado’s Statute of Repose for Medical Malpractice Claims: An Uneasy Sleep | | 825 |
| People v. Mitchell : The Good Faith Exception in Colorado | | 841 |
| Colorado v. New Mexico II : Judicial Restraint in the Equitable Apportionment of Interstate Waters | | 857 |
| Sony v. Universal City Studios : Can the Marketplace Relationship Between Creator and Consumer be Preserved? | | 873 |
| Oliver v. United States : Powell Chases Katz Out of the Fields | | 899 |