Judge Kane Selected First Miller Distinguished Professor

The Honorable John L. Kane, Jr., U.S. Senior District Court Judge, Denver, has been selected to be the first Martin P. Miller Distinguished Professor at the University of Denver College of Law.

Kane, a 1961 graduate of the DU law school, will deliver a series of lectures during the winter quarter (January-March) on various topics relating to professional responsibility of trial lawyers.

The Miller Professorship was established recently at DU by Martin P. Miller, well-known Denver-area trial attorney, a 1951 DU law graduate. Miller served as district attorney, Arapahoe County, from 1959-69, preceded by service as a district court judge in that county in 1955-59.

The professorship and lecture series represent Miller's commitment to reinforcing the awareness of professional responsibility among new lawyers.

Kane will present four general lectures on ethics and advocacy, which will be open to DU students, faculty and the Denver legal community. He will also conduct several master classes for DU law students.

Kane, who has previously taught at DU, was appointed to the federal bench in 1977. He returned to the courtroom in August on a part-time basis after taking senior judge status in April 1988 for health reasons. Earlier this year he was a visiting lecturer in law at Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland.

All lectures will be from 12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m. in the Davis Auditorium, Lowell Thomas Law Building, 1900 Olive Street, Denver. The lectures are open to the public with no charge and no reservation is necessary.

The lecture schedule:

Thursday, January 11, 1990 - "A Memorable Profession" -a historical study of the American legal profession from colonial times to the present.

Thursday, January 25, 1990 - "A Craft in Crisis" -a descriptive analysis of the current state of law practice and why it is no longer a profession.

Thursday, February 8, 1990 - "Constructs and Constricts in Ethical Behavior" -observations about both the internal and external forces which either require or encourage unethical behavior on the part of lawyers.

Thursday, February 22, 1990 - "Provocations to an Adversary System" -conclusions, and proposals for reforming the present situation.

Program Promotes Judicial Clerkships

A new program designed to promote judicial clerkships among law students has been initiated at the University of Denver College of Law.

As part of the initial phase of the program, law school officials are seeking the names and addresses of DU law alumni who have clerked for a state or federal judge. Former clerks are a valuable resource and are in a unique position to provide interested students both with insight into clerking experience as well as valuable background information on the relevant judge.

Those who have clerked or otherwise may have an interest in assisting with the program are asked to contact Professor J. Robert Brown, Jr., at the College of Law, 1900 Olive Street, Denver, CO 80220, (303) 871-6270. Professor Brown served as a clerk to the Hon. Frank M. Johnson, Jr., U.S. Court of Appeals, 11th Circuit.

Committee Accepting Nominations for Law Deanship Vacancy

Applications and nominations for the position of Dean of the University of Denver College of Law will be accepted until January 5, 1990, according to Dr. Norman F. Watt, professor of clinical psychology at DU, who is chairing the Search Committee.

The law school Deanship will officially become vacant on June 30, 1990, when the resignation of Edward A. Dauer becomes effective. Dean Dauer is presently on a research leave of absence during the fifth and final year of his term as dean. Professor Emeritus William M. Beaney is serving as acting dean.

Applications and nominations should be submitted, with a detailed resume, to Professor Watt at the University of Denver, 2460 South Vine Street, Denver, CO 80208. His telephone number is (303) 871-3306.

Members of the law search committee include:

Outside members and alumni: John L. Breit, '74; the Honorable John L. Kane, Jr., '60; James C. Owen, Jr., '56; Allan R. Phipps, '37, who is also a member of the University Board of Trustees. All are from Denver. Faculty: Law Professors Burton F. Brody, Thomas D. Crandall, Ved P. Nanda, Stephen L. Pepper, George W. Pring, Lawrence P. Tiffany; Dr. Ruth Parsons, Graduate School of Social Work; Donald McCubbrey, College of Business Administration. Law Students: Robert H. Dee and Laura L. Kirlin. Law Staff Liaison: Claudia L. Tomlin.

For First Time Takers: Bar Pass Rate Jumps to 84%

University of Denver College of Law graduates taking the Colorado bar examination in July for the first time achieved an 84 percent pass rate. This compares with a 67 percent pass rate on the 1988 July bar.

Figures released by the State Board of Law Examiners show 159 DU graduates who took the test last July for the first time passed the exam while 31 were unsuccessful.

For DU overall, of 249 test takers in July, 182, or 73 percent, passed. DU's overall pass rate a year ago was 62 percent.

A total of 570 applicants sat for the July 1989 Colorado bar exam; 434, or 74 percent, passed.
Brenman Accepts Fund Chairmanship; Goal Is $360,000

Albert Brenman, BSBA'50, JD'53, has accepted the chairmanship of DU's 1989-90 Law Alumni Fund. He will direct a 27-member committee challenged to meet a $360,000 goal.

Brenman, the founding partner of the Denver business law firm of Brenman, Raskin, Friedlob & Tennenbaum, is not a new participant in law school alumni affairs. He has served as a member of the Law Alumni Council since 1981, chairing the group from 1981-83. Brenman chaired the Law Alumni Fund effort from 1979-81.

Active in community affairs, he has served on the Board of Trustees of Temple Micah, both as a member and as president at various times from 1967-81. Brenman is presently president of the Denver Chapter of the American Society for Handicapped Children in Israel. He also serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of Temple Emanuel and the Allied Jewish Federation.

Patrick F. Kenney, JD'68, is serving as vice chairman of the Law Alumni Fund. A partner with Fairfax & Woods, Denver, he has served on the committee for several years.

Serving on the committee as reunion class agents for 1989-90 are:
Paul B. Rodden, '50; Henry W. Toll, Jr. '55; Robert L. Frye, '60; Arthur A. Antise, '65; Ronald H. Jacobs, '70; Mary H. Ewing, '75; Lillian H. Filegar, '80.

Other Law Alumni Fund committee members include Bruce T. Buell, '58; William T. Diss, '59; Marc Geman, '73; Teryl R. Gorrell, '78; William T. Hart, '75; Marcia C. Holt, '73; Nina A. Iwashko, '82.

Also, Philip E. Johnson, '74; Judith D. Judd, '83; Donald E. LaMora, '50; John W. Loy, '51; Richard F. Mauro, '70; Joseph M. Montano, '53; James C. Owen, Jr. '56; Marilyn Alkire Shea, '77; C. Jean Stewart, '74; Harvey P. Wallace, '53; Kenneth R. Whiting, '53.

Corporate Internships Popular with Students

A relatively unique program at the University of Denver College of Law is the Corporate Internship Program, established during the 1981-82 academic year. Through the program, students are placed in a variety of corporate settings in the Denver metropolitan area.

The program has proved highly popular with students and is extremely competitive. This year approximately 50 students applied for placement in one of the 11 positions available. Participating companies currently include First Interstate Bank, Amoco, U.S. West, and Samsonite Corporation.

Each student works 15 hours a week over two quarters. Students draft contracts, research legal issues and deal directly with relevant corporate personnel. The program provides students with valuable insight into the practice of law within a corporation.

Professor J. Robert Brown, Jr., and Rita Zaslowsky, Placement Director, oversee the program along with two sponsors from participating corporations. Questions or comments about the program or expressions of interest in participation should be directed to Professor Brown (303) 871-6270 or Ms. Zaslowsky (303)871-6124.

The Law Alumni Newsletter is published by the University of Denver College of Law for its alumni and friends. We welcome your comments and suggestions, and especially news about alumni and their careers. Correspondence should be addressed to:

Honor Roll of Donors
University of Denver
College of Law
1988-89

The College of Law extends its sincere appreciation to the many alumni, friends, parents, law firms, corporations and foundations who supported the school during the 1988-89 fiscal year. Contributions from all sources amounted to $2,605,156 during the year.

The Honor Roll acknowledges all contributions to the College of Law, including: Estate of Frank H. Ricketson, Jr., '19; Law Alumni Fund (see below); Inns of Court Capital Campaign; The National Center for Preventive Law; Named Scholarship Funds (see listing on page 15); Memorial Gifts; Public Interest Clerkship Program; Mapelli Student Union Fund; Dean's Fund for Faculty Programs; Natural Resources Program; Graduate Tax Program; International Legal Studies Program; Masters in Judicial Administration Program; Writing Awards; Lectureships; Matching Gifts; Moot Court Competitions; Transportation Law Programs; Stuart James Research Center; the Westminster Law Library; and other gifts made through bequests.

The College of Law is especially grateful to those alumni who helped the Law Alumni Fund set a new giving record for the fourth consecutive year.

Under the direction of Co-Chairmen James C. Owen, Jr., '56, and Glen E. Keller, Jr., '64, the 1988-89 campaign reached $353,181.56. The goal was $350,000.

Law Alumni Fund monies were again designated to the Law Alumni Scholars program—financial awards to students with outstanding professional promise.

Committee members who assisted in making 1988-89 a record year included:

Members-at-large: Mary Ellen Amaral, '73; Stuart L. Boulter, '68; Albert Brennan, '53; James W. Buchanan III, '75; Paul F. Goldsmith, '43; John S. Holt, '68; Bruce B. Johnson, '70; Judith D. C. Judd, '83; Patrick F. Kenney, '68; John W. Low, '51.

Richard F. Mauro, '70; Jack S. Silver, '72; Harold R. Smethills, Jr., '75; C. Jean Stewart, '74; Harvey P. Wallace, '53; Kenneth R. Whiting, '53.

1989
Alumni Reunion
Dinner-Dance

Around 175 persons attended the 1989 College of Law Alumni Reunion Dinner-Dance Friday, September 22. Law classes for the years ending in four and nine were highlighted during the event held at the Stouffer Concours Hotel in Denver.

College officials were particularly pleased with the large number of out-of-state alumni who attended the activities. Charles F. Brannan, '29, and Lawrence M. Henry, '39, served as Reunion Co-Chairmen.

James C. Owen, Jr., '56, Chairman of the Law Alumni Council, served as Master of Ceremonies at a post-dinner program. Acting Dean William M. Beaney presented Certificates of Recognition to members of the 1929, 1939, and 1964 classes, noting their 60th, 50th and 25th anniversaries of graduation, respectively.

Charles Goldberg, 1964 Reunion Chairman, presided at a DU Legal Trivia game. Tying for top honors were Professors Emeriti Thompson G. Marsh, '27, and John Phillip Linn, '55.

On Saturday, September 23, Acting Dean Beaney, assisted by Professor John H. Reese and Admissions Director Claudia Tomlin, presided at a lively Dean’s Coffee discussion. About 40 alumni attended. A number of graduates joined the law students at noon for the Dean’s Picnic.

Members of the Reunion classes registering for the weekend events included (all are from the Denver metro area except as noted):

Class of 1929: Hon. Donald H. Meyer, chairman; Charles F. Brannan; Sam F. Davis; Gizella C. Penn; Samuel H. Sterling.

Class of 1939: Lawrence M. Henry, chairman; Milton Morris; Eugene J. Schaezle.

Class of 1964: Charles Goldberg, chairman; Dean V. Ambrose, Los Angeles, California; Thomas J. Burns; James D. Cooper-Hill, Houston, Texas; Richard A. Dunder, Ogallala, Nebraska; Richard C. Class of 1975: Christopher C. Cross, chairman; Nancy B. Elkind; Mary Jo Gross; Judith H. Holms; Wesley B. Howard; Dean G. Lehman, Longmont, Colorado; Kenneth B. Malpass, Boulder, Colorado; Linda L. Rainier; John W. Savage, Rifle, Colorado; John F. Shepherd; Patricia A. Schwartz; David F. Steinhoff; Robert D. Taylor; Karen S. Westrell.
