

AUTHORIZATION TO RECORD & RELEASE
RMLUI MARCH 2010 CONFERENCE

In consideration for my appearing as a presenter at the RMLUI Nineteenth Annual Land Use Conference, to be held on March 3, 4 and 5, 2010; I, _____, authorize and release Colorado Seminary, which owns and operates the University of Denver, its Sturm College of Law and the Rocky Mountain Land Use Institute (“RMLUI”) (collectively, the “University”) to record, broadcast, photograph, and otherwise reproduce visual and audio recordings of my presentation(s) on any media of its choosing.

I hereby grant a perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive, and royalty-free license to the University to reproduce, distribute, and create derivative works from any written materials that I submit to RMLUI in connection with my presentation(s).

In signing this authorization and release, I understand that the University may use such recordings, together with, or separate from, derivative works created from the written material I may submit for such purposes as development of educational resources, for purposes of planning future programs and development at RMLUI, and for such other not for profit uses as the University may determine are necessary and appropriate consistent with its educational mission, provided that any publication outside the University of derivative works created pursuant hereto shall include appropriate recognition of me.

I hereby waive any claim of ownership to the recordings or the derivative works and convey and assign any rights in them that I may have to the University.
