The University of Denver Sturm College of Law
Academic Achievement Program
Presents:

Law School Preparation
SUMMER PREVIEW 2014

Law school is not just an extension of college.
It is unlike any other educational experience, so don’t assume you have all the study skills required to succeed. If you have concerns about preparing for law school, about re-entering the academic world after time away, or if you just want to start law school a step ahead, our summer program might be right for you!

MONDAY, AUGUST 4 - THURSDAY, AUGUST 7, 2014
9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

The Summer Preview includes an introduction to the typical first year of law school, including the legal writing and academic skills necessary for success in law school.

Basics for the first year of law school…
An introduction to:
- The American legal system, including sources of the law
- How a case moves through our judicial system
- Legal concepts and vocabulary most likely encountered in first-year classes
- Legal Writing

Success in the classroom…
- Preparing for class
- Reading and briefing cases efficiently and effectively
- Participating in courses taught in the Socratic Method
- Applying legal rules to new situations
- Understanding legal analysis and synthesis

Academic skills…
- Organizing materials throughout the semester to prepare for final exams
- Using technology effectively in law school
- Making the most of your learning and study styles

Registration begins April 1st, 2014, at:
