If you have concerns about preparing for law school, about re-entering the academic world after time away, or if you just want to start law school a step ahead, our summer program might be right for you!

MONDAY, AUGUST 1 - FRIDAY, AUGUST 5, 2011

The Summer Preview includes an introduction to the typical first year of law school, as well as legal writing and the academic skills necessary for success in law school.

Basics for the first year of law school…
- An introduction to the American legal system
- Sources of the law—constitutions, cases, statutes, and regulations
- How a case moves through our judicial system
- Legal concepts and vocabulary most likely encountered in first year classes

Success in the classroom…
- Preparing for class
- Reading and briefing cases efficiently and effectively
- Participating in courses taught in the Socratic Method
- Applying legal rules to new situations
- Legal analysis and synthesis
- An introduction to legal writing

Academic skills…
- Organizing materials throughout the semester to be prepared for final exams
- Effective use of technology in law school
- Making the most of your learning and study styles
