VISITING JD APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Complete as much of the data requested as possible. Items/fields marked with an asterisk (*) are required and must be completed or you will not be able to submit your application. While other items are optional, the data you provide will assist us in our admission process. If an optional item or a field is not applicable to you do not enter any of the following in the space provided: N/A, None, Same, Same as above.

2. You must designate which Division you wish to be considered for. If you would like to be considered for both the Day/Full-Time and the Evening/Part-Time Division you must mark the Division which is your first choice, and then attach an addendum in the form of a brief statement indicating your interest in being considered for both Divisions.

3. All visiting applicants are required to submit a double-spaced, typewritten statement of intent, which generally should not exceed two pages. (Use an electronic attachment.) You should use this opportunity to explain to the Admissions Committee why you should be selected for admission as a visiting student to the Sturm College of Law. This statement must include the reason you desire to visit at the Sturm College of Law.

4. You might also include a statement containing topics that the Committee considers helpful in evaluating your qualifications including:

- Significant personal experiences beyond what may be reflected in your transcripts and on your resume, especially experiences associated with the law.
- Characteristics and experiences that you will bring to the Sturm College of Law and the legal profession that distinguish you from other applicants.
- Long-range career plans and goals that you intend to pursue with your law degree.
- The intellectual contribution you will make to the classroom.
- If you believe there is something about your background, such as a bad semester of grades or a citation for a D.U.I., that would appear to create a problem for your admission, you should address it forthrightly. Explain what happened and how you have dealt with it.

5. We require the submission of a Letter of Good Standing which is to be sent directly from your current law school to our office. This letter should include permission for you to attend as a visiting student and state the conditions under which you will be given credit for grades received at the University of Denver.

6. All visiting applicants must submit an official transcript from their current law school. This transcript must be sent directly from the Registrar’s Office, not from the applicant, to our office.
7. We require a non-refundable application fee of $60.00 to be paid when you submit your application.

All materials submitted as part of the application process become the property of the University of Denver Sturm College of Law and cannot be returned.
