All events held at the Ricketson Law Building unless otherwise indicated.

University of Denver Law Review Global Climate Change Symposium Friday, February 15, 2008

The University of Denver Law Review symposium will feature some of the nation's most well known environmental and legal specialists, including award winning DU Law faculty members. Symposium topics will cover climate change policy, domestic environmental justice, reducing greenhouse gases and regulating the carbon market. Please visit the Law Review website for more information.

Water Law Symposium: Cutting Edge Alternatives- Creating, Leasing, Re-Using Wednesday, March 5, 2008

The Water Law symposium is designed for all individuals from the practitioner to the developer. Learn how these cutting-edge ideas fit into current riparian or prior appropriation systems while focusing on future solutions to issues related to decreasing water supplies. Please visit the registration website for more information.

Rocky Mountain Land Use Conference: Sustaining the Next 100 Million Thursday-Saturday, March 6-7, 2008

The 17th annual Rocky Mountain Land Use Institute (RMLUI) conference brings together colleagues from across the U.S. for the region's largest and most comprehensive land use planning and law event. This diverse group will debate critical regulatory, environmental and land development issues focusing on current and controversial topics. There will also be a pre-conference symposium offered March 5th with the DU Water Law Review and Consensus Building Institute. For more information, please visit the RMLUI website.

Dean's Roll Call: CLE & Skiing! Thursday-Sunday, March 6-9, 2008

The inaugural Dean's Roll Call will feature a dynamic combination of CLE workshops and general sessions. Additionally, alumni will enjoy daily leisure time to enjoy winter activities with their families and colleagues at one of Colorado's premier resort locations. Please visit the CLE website for more information.

Judges' Day 2008 Thursday, April 10, 2008

Held each spring at the University of Denver Sturm College of Law, Judges' Day is an opportunity for the law school community to honor judiciary from the Rocky Mountain region and for students to interact with judges and to hear real oral arguments to the Colorado Court of Appeals. For more information, please visit the Judges' Day website.

ALUMNI RESOURCES

The Alumni Career Network Online

The Alumni Career Network (ACN) program enables students to contact participating alumni and discuss specific practice areas, the legal profession in other cities and the overall benefits (and drawbacks) of a career in law. This program is a wonderful way to assist the next generation of DU Law alumni. Please visit the Alumni Career Network website to register.

Keep Up To Date On DU Law Faculty Research

The Sturm College of Law recently joined the Social Science Research Network (SSRN), an on-line network of research databases that distributes information about scholarly research throughout the world. Subscribers to the DU Law Legal Studies Research Paper Series receive periodic email updates with the titles and abstracts of both finished articles and draft articles written by DU Law faculty. This is a quick and easy way to keep up to date on the most current research being conducted and disseminated by our faculty scholars.

If you would like to subscribe to this FREE service, please visit the SSRN website. If you have any questions about subscribing, please contact the Manager of Educational Technology, Jessica Hogan.

Pioneer Legal Internship Program

With more than 400 placements a year, the University of Denver Sturm College of Law's internship program is an effective and comprehensive bridge to take students from law student to lawyer. Interns work with corporate in-house counsel, private firms, government and non-profit agencies, as well as with judges at all levels. The program welcomes new intern sites. For more information please visit the Internship Program website.

Legislative Process Digital Collection

The Westminster Law Library at the University of Denver Sturm College of Law is proud to announce the release of a new digital collection, Access for All: Providing a Window to the Legislative Process for Colorado's Citizens. This site provides searchable access to all Colorado Legislative Council Research Publications, links to relevant legislation for newer publications, and information on performing legislative history research at the state and federal level. For more information, please visit the Westminster Law Library.

Stay connected with your classmates and other DU alumni
