Pursuant to Section VII(D) of the Southern District of New York's C.J.A. Plan, attorneys Solomon L. Wisenberg and Adrienne U. Wisenberg of Wisenberg & Wisenberg, PLLC, with the approval of the Chief Judge, are hereby appointed to represent Defendant Paul Barnaba in the above-captioned matter. They are to be paid for their representation out of the C.J.A. fund, NUNC-PRO-TUNC August 1, 2008.

In order to obtain payment in excess of the maximum limits on counsel fees set forth in the C.J.A. Plan, counsel must submit the memoranda described in Section IX(B) of the Plan and otherwise fully comply with Plan requirements. Because of the length of this case, the Court finds that interim payments to counsel are necessary and appropriate. Accordingly, the Court will accept payment vouchers from counsel on a monthly basis. The Court will also authorize payment for paralegals, but counsel is directed to contact the CJA office regarding the level of compensation and appropriate procedures for obtaining such payment.

SO ORDERED:

BARBARA S. JONES
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
