ABOUT US/ ABOUT THE EVENT

The international and comparative law programs at Denver Law include the International Legal Studies Program, the Roche IBT LLM Program, the Ved Nanda Center for International and Comparative Law, the Denver Journal of International Law and Policy, and the International Law Society.

The International Law Anniversary Weekend celebrates forty years of international and comparative law at Denver Law and honors its founding father, as well as its alumni.

Be a part of a unique celebration and while doing so learn about emerging issues in energy and environmental law, human rights, piracy, corporate social responsibility and more!

WHO WILL BE ATTENDING

The International Law Anniversary Weekend will be marketed to alumni, legal practitioners, academics, law students, the broader University of Denver community, and Denver Metro community members interested in issues and emerging trends in international law.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

The weekend's events will kick off with dinner on Friday April 13th, featuring a keynote address by Sturm College of Law alumna and international energy law expert Sheila Slocum Hollis of Duane Morris, LLP, recipient of this year's Alumni Award from the Denver Journal of International Law & Policy. This will be followed by an all-day symposium on Saturday, April 14, considering "Emerging Issues in International Law, With a Special Focus on the Americas," and featuring distinguished guests speaking on topics such as International Criminal Law in domestic courts; the International Criminal Court and international prosecutions; piracy; human rights and corporate social responsibility in the context of energy and natural resources development; and more. Prominent invitees include Mr. Stephen Gottsfeld, General Counsel of Newmont Mining Company; Ms. Sheila Hollis of Duane Morris, LLP; Mr. J. Triplett Mackintosh, partner at Holland & Hart, LLP; Mr. José Antonio Peláez Bardales, Attorney General of Peru and Prosecutor in the historic Fujimori case; Mr. Robert Petit, former Chief Prosecutor at the Cambodia Tribunal, currently in the Canadian War Crimes Offices of their Justice Department; Mr. Stephen Rapp, US Ambassador at Large for War Crimes Issues; Mr. Alejandro Toledo, former President of Peru; Mr. José Miguel Vivanco, Americas Director of Human Rights Watch who is pressing for a tribunal for Haiti; Mr. Mark Wielga of Nomogaia.

ANNIVERSARY BOOK UNDERWRITING

$500

Denver Law's own Denver Journal of International Law and Policy (Journal) is celebrating its 40th Anniversary. One of the first of its kind, the Journal was forward-looking and unique and has continued on through the years with a tradition of superior and innovative international legal scholarship. To mark the anniversary, the editors are publishing a book edition of the Journal which will also be a festschrift honoring the Journal's founder, Professor Ved P. Nanda. With his vision of both the scope and importance of International Law, Professor Nanda helped to bring the University of Denver College of Law to the world's attention. It goes without saying that thousands of DU Law alumni have been touched by Professor Nanda over these decades.

This year, the Journal will look back on the past 40 years of major events in International Law, how the law has evolved, and the role our alumni have played in its progress. The festschrift will be a compilation of perspectives on how international law is likely to grow over the next 40 years, and will feature contributions from extremely important and influential scholars and lawyers.

The book will be launched on April 13, 2012 in conjunction with the International Law Anniversary Weekend.

If you would like to underwrite this commemorative edition of the Journal, your name or firm logo will be memorialized in a book that has an international readership of thousands, and which will be distributed to law libraries, professors and deans throughout the nation and the world.
