

Private Firm Externship

In the Private Firm Externship Program students work at a private law firm. The Legal Externship Program has approved supervising attorneys at a variety of different firms, whose practices focus on everything from family law to animal rights.

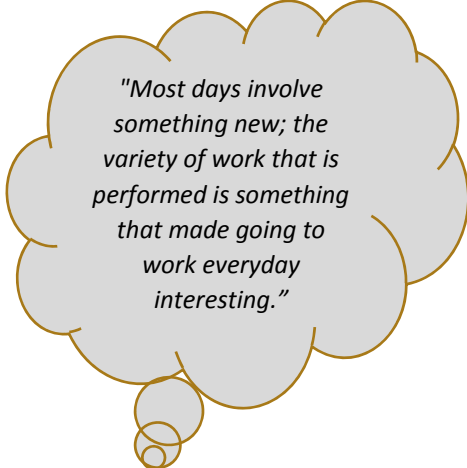

The accompanying one credit Private Firm seminar course will take a close look at issues specific to the practice of law in a private firm, such as ethical issues, professionalism, effective advocacy, negotiations, practice management, office culture, and client relationships.

In recent years, students have externed at:

- Holland & Hart, LLC
- Rathod | Mohamedbhai LLC
- Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP
- Rocky Mountain Disability Law Group
- Creative Law Network, LLC
- KO Sports, Inc.
- Greenberg Traurig, LLP
- The Tipton Law Firm
- Truhlar & Truhlar, LLP

"Getting to spend lots of one-on-one time with my supervisor and getting to pick his brain on virtually any topic."

"Most days involve something new; the variety of work that is performed is something that made going to work everyday interesting."

"Getting to meet many other lawyers, judges, and persons involved in the legal system."

"...All of the attorneys were genuinely interested in helping you learn and grow accustomed to the work environment."

"Some of the most valuable opportunities came from attending business development events with co-workers."
