

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA ON JOHN A. CARVER, JR.

Born April 24, 1918, at Preston, Idaho, son of John A. Carver and LaVerne Olson Carver. Married Ruth O'Connor, 1942; two sons and one daughter.

Educated in public schools of Preston, Pocatello, and Boise, Idaho. Attended Boise (Idaho) Junior College, George Washington University, Brigham Young University (A. B. 1939) and University of Montana Law School, University of Idaho Law School, and Georgetown University (LL.B. 1947). Honors: LL.D, College of Guam, 1964, John Carroll Medal of Merit, Georgetown University, 1971.

Admitted to practice law in Idaho and the District of Columbia, 1946, and in Colorado, 1978.

Military: 1st. Lt. USAF, discharge April 1946.

Employment

Messenger, U. S. Senate Committee to Investigate Railroad Financing, 1936-37.

War Department, Office of the Secretary of War, Civilian Personnel Division, 1941-1946. [Furloughed for military service in 1943, as Regional Director, New York Region.]

Assistant Attorney General, Idaho, 1947-48.

Partner, Carver, McClenahan & Greenfield, Boise, Idaho, 1948-1956.

Administrative Assistant to U. S. Senator Frank Church (D, ID), 1957-1960.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior for Public Land Management, 1961-1964.

Under Secretary of the Interior, 1965-1966.

Commissioner, U. S. Federal Power Commission (now Federal Energy Regulatory Commission), 1966-1972.

Professor of Law, University of Denver College of Law, 1972-1988.

Director, Transco Energy Company, Houston, TX, 1976-1988.

Special Assistant to Governor H. Rex Lee, Territory of American Samoa, 1977-1978; Attorney General of American Samoa, 1978.

Other:

Member, Advisory Council, Public Land Law Review Commission.

Member, National Petroleum Council.

Member, American Bar Association Special Committee on Energy Law.

Professor of Law Emeritus continued active teaching after retirement from University of Denver College of Law, 1988-2004.