

PUBLIC GOOD DISTINCTION

SAMPLE PUBLIC GOOD COURSES

Note: This list is not meant to be exhaustive.

Students are responsible for charting their own path and choosing courses that fit into their career interests and their vision for serving the public good as a public interest lawyer.

Academic advising is strongly encouraged to assist with course selection. Contact afreeman@law.du.edu to set up an advising appointment with relevant faculty/staff.

Note: Classes offered change each semester.

Environmental Law	Water Law	Juvenile Law	Labor Law
Social Change Lawyering	Civil Litigation Clinic & Seminar	Employment Discrimination	Critical Race Reading Seminar
Labor & Employment Writing Seminar	Marriage Equality and Religion	Water Transactions Seminar	Death Penalty Jurisprudence
Child Advocacy Practicum	Crimmigration Seminar	Forced Migration & Human Trafficking	Criminal Defense Clinic & Seminar
Renewable Energy Project	Poverty Law and Low Wage Work	Community Economic Development Clinic & Seminar	International Human Rights
Federal Courts	Criminal Procedure	Workplace Rights Project & Seminar	Federal Indian Law
International Law	Constitutional Law II	Education Law	Election Law
Energy Law	Natural Resources Law	Immigration Law	Asylum Law
Civil Rights Clinic & Seminar	Mediation Practicum	Health Law	Representing Spanish Speaking Client
Public Interest Lawyering Lab	Muliculturalism, Race and the Law	Animal Law	Problem Solving Courts
Global Climate Change	Non-Profit Organizations	Public Sector Employment Law	Sustainable Cities Practicum