- a. Summary: He appreciated the SBA's feedback and wanted to let us know they have a bid now with the vendor to allow for scheduling, (which Cat recommended at the last meeting). They hope to have the scheduling on the blog by this summer.

2. Career Development Office Update

- a. Summary: They're busy now with second semester work and 1L summer job offerings. They're also working with the class of 2015 to get a report by April 7th of their employment to see if they need any help.

b. Discussion:

Mattson – This has come up in my recent employment search as a 3L. If you could provide a link to Colorado Bar and Denver Bar career pages that would be great. Either on DU webpage or Symplicity.

Bono – So you're just looking for a link?

Mattson – Yes.

Bono – We can figure something out for the home page. When I get word of job postings I just send them to our staff to put it in a certain priority. Roughly 1/3 of our grads graduate with a job. A good chunk get jobs between graduation and bar results in October. A larger chunk get jobs after October.

III. Student Concerns

a. Ear Plugs (Cat)

- i. Summary: A student came to Cat wanting to see if the Library could provide students with ear plugs.
- ii. Discussion:

Josh – Talk to Diane Burkhardt. I would direct students to the silent floors, then follow up with Student Affairs.

Ashley – Why can't students get them from Student Affairs?

Cat – They can always just walk over to Student Affairs

b. Movie Nights (Steven)

- i. Summary: Steven has been working since last semester to secure the right to screen movies on campus such as Legally Blonde, 12 Angry Men, My Cousin Vinny and To Kill A Mockingbird. He spoke with Dean Boynton who directed him to Dean Moffat who directed him to the Law Library who directed him to the Main Library who told him they were fine as long as Dean Moffat was okay with it, they did not profit from ticket sales and didn't invite anyone outside of the law school. Dean Moffat then directed him to the University Counsel who said they would not be okay with the University accepting liability in screening a movie without paying for the screening rights.

ii. Discussion:

Taylor – Have you looked in the public domain?

Ashley – I believe 12 Angry Men is in the public domain.

Steven – I will see about 12 Angry Men and To Kill A Mockingbird.

Jason – What's the problem?

Mattson – It's a legal issue.

Taylor – Talk to Students for Sensible Drug Policy and see what they did to gain screening rights for the movie they recently screened.

Steven – I will get with them, check the registry, check the company and figure it out.
