1. Wanted to know they only got a $25 swag budget for Derby Days, events, and talks
2. Brought up that they weren't able to list specific dates for their talks, but they want to offer one talk per month
 - a. They assumed this was sufficient information for their proposal
 - b. They also didn't know they had to specify the topics
3. It was not feasible to get exact dates and topics 8 months because of the things going on in community. It would be difficult for them to schedule someone that far in advance
4. They brought up the point that they are trying to rebuild
5. Sara- knowing dates are important so we know that that the days are happening
6. Hailey-they still have special funding; the exact problem with their proposal this year was the exact dates and locations
7. It is still hard to know for the mid year- can they reschedule?
 - a. Sara, yes. Just be sure there are no patterns of rescheduling or canceling
8. Wanted to know if there was sufficient funds for doing special requests
9. Chris- when SBA gives you money, then we don't take back; its not so much reschedule, as canceling; difference
