

WHO WE ARE

Our main goals:

- Encourage law students to devote their careers to the fight for social good
- Expose students to the broad range of work being done to advance legal goals for the benefit of the public
- Provide an information base for public interest work
- Create a forum for healthy and interactive discussion
- Inspire students to follow their hearts

Public Interest Law Group (PILG)

PILG:

- Encourages involvement in the community
- Provides a forum for discussion by bringing in and co-sponsoring speaker panels
- Raises funds to allow students to work for non-profit organizations during the summer
- Attempts to encourage law students (and the legal community) to devote time, energy, and intellect to helping disadvantaged individuals obtain access to our legal system

HOW TO ADD YOURSELF TO PILG'S LISTSERVE (So you don't miss out!):

Log on to Webmail.

1. Click on the gear icon in the upper right.
2. Select "Options".
3. Click "Distribution Groups"
4. You might be asked to go to an earlier version of the Outlook Web App, if you see this screen then click "Go to earlier version"
5. You should now see a screen with two sections "distribution groups I belong to" and "distribution groups I own"
6. To remove yourself from a group select it under the "groups I belong to" section and click the minus icon.
7. To add yourself to a group click the plus icon
8. You can now search for the group in question. Once you've found it, select it and hit the join button.

You should get a dialog box that says you have successfully joined, if you do not please contact the helpdesk at 303.871.6464 or help@law.du.edu.

*UNIVERSITY OF DENVER PUBLIC SERVICE REQUIREMENT: To ensure that the College of Law remains in the forefront of public service, every Juris Doctor student is required to perform a minimum of 50 hours of supervised, uncompensated, law-related public service work during his or her law school career as a prerequisite to graduation.
