Bibliography of Suggested Readings

Speaker Literature (also provided as conference materials):

Background to and Context for the Arab Spring:

General:

Lisa Anderson, Demystifying the Arab Spring, 90/3 Foreign Aff. 3(2011).

Bahrain:

Egypt:

Iran

Suzanne Maloney, Iran will Benefit from this Arab Spring, Financial Times, February 23, 2011. Found at: http://www.ft.com/intl/cms/s/0/090f291a-3f92-11e0-a1ba-00144feabdc0.html#axzz1YKTEtJiD.

Iraq

Libya:

Demise of the Arab Spring; If the Events in Libya are Anything to go by, Then Surely, Imperialism is the Biggest Enemy of Democracy, Economic & Political Weekly, August 27, 2011. Found at: http://0-.

Morocco:

Syria:

Tunisia:

Yemen:
In Yemen's Arab Spring, Crucial to Look Beyond Al Qaeda, blogcritics.org, September 15, 2011. Found at: http://blogcritics.org/culture/article/in-yemens-arab-spring-crucial-to/.

Israel, Palestine and the Arab Spring:

Social Media, Technology and the Arab Spring:

Human Rights and the Responsibility to Protect:

International and U.S. Foreign Policy Implications of the Arab Spring:

Daniel Byman, Terrorism After the Revolutions, 90/3 Foreign Aff. (2011).

Anders F. Rasmussen, NATO After Libya, 90/4 Foreign Aff. 2 (2011).