

THE CENTER FOR ADVOCACY (CFA)

At the University of Denver Sturm College of Law

2019 ADVOCATES CUP ENTRY FORM

1. Welcome to The Advocates Cup! DU Law's Spring Trial Advocacy Championship.
2. The 4 Preliminary Rounds are: Friday 3.29 at 6:00 p.m.; Saturday 3.30 at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.; Sunday 3.31 at 9:30 a.m. The Championship Round will be Sunday 3.31 at 1:30 p.m.
3. There will be a non-mandatory Info Meeting on Thursday 1.31.19 at 12:00 in Room 190.
4. "Trial Boom" will provide the Best 1L Advocate and Best Upperclassmen Advocate Awards.
5. This is the entry form that every team must complete. Spaces are limited, so acceptance into The Advocates Cup will be on a "first-come, first-served" basis. Every team must also provide a $100 bond check, which will be returned if the team successfully completes the Cup. Email the form to Professor Schott – Dschott@law.du.edu, and slide the bond check under his office door (390-H in the Grad Legal Studies suite). If you are alone or do not have enough advocates to form a team, email Prof Schott and he will help you to form a team with others in your position.
6. By submitting this form, all four (4) competitors agree that they are bound by the University of Denver Sturm College of Law's Honor Code at all times during their participation in The Advocates Cup.
7. Every team must consist of two 1Ls and two upperclassmen (2Ls or 3Ls).
8. In each round, two team members will serve as the Advocates. The other two team members will serve as the Witnesses. Each team member must serve as an Advocate on one side of the case.
9. Additionally, in each round, a 1L MUST serve as an Advocate. Thus, yes, in each round the two Advocate positions will be filled by a 1L and an upperclassmen.
10. The complete Tournament Rules will be posted on the TAD webpage.
11. The case materials will be posted on the TAD webpage the week of 22 February 2019.
