

Classes Eligible for Corporate & Commercial Law Program to meet the “4th Course Requirement”

Antitrust Law
Banking Law
Bankruptcy Law (if taken in addition to Trial Practice or Securities Regulation)
Basic Patent Law
Business Planning
Commercial Paper
Corporate Drafting
Corporate Reorganization
Debtor/Creditor Rights and Remedies
Doing Business in Latin America
Employment Law
Government Contracts
Insurance Law
International Bankruptcy
International Business Transactions
International Commercial Arbitration
International Trade
Internet and Computer Law
Introduction to Intellectual Property
Multinational Corporations and International Law
Sales
Secured Transactions
Securities Regulation (if taken in addition to Trial Practice or Bankruptcy)
Transportation Business Law
White Collar Crime

A second course designated as a critical thinking class.

A second course designated as a transactional writing course.

Any course taken at the Sturm College of Law if approved by the Program Director, including classes taken in the Graduate Tax Program.

Any course related to the Program and taken at the Daniels School of Business if approved by the Program Director.

Any course related to the Program and taken at GSIS if approved by the Program Director.

Any graduate class related to the Program and taken at the University of Denver if approved by the Program Director.