Innovative European Urbanism

3:30—4:30 p.m.
Thursday, April 21, 2005
Sturm Hall, Davis Auditorium

Moderator: James van Hemert, AICP
Executive Director
The Rocky Mountain Land Use Institute
Denver, Colorado

Panelists: Ed Ziegler
Professor of Law
University of Denver College of Law
Denver, Colorado

James Kushner
Professor of Law
Southwestern University School of Law
Los Angeles, California
The Urbanization of Suburbia

SMART GROWTH

SENTIMENTAL NIMBYISM
Land use activists promoting the “public interest” by “fighting sprawl” through various “smart growth” and “environmental protection” restrictions (which enhance the aesthetic character and property values of existing neighborhoods but that actually promote more sprawl).

New West NIMBY

Smart Growth
Ridgeway at Lone Tree

Target

Veolia Energy
Innovative European Urbanism

Professor James A. Kushner
Southwestern Law University
Los Angeles, California
April 21, 2005
The Rocky Mountain Land Use Institute
University of Denver
GWL Terrein
Amsterdam
The Netherlands
Munich, Germany
Reim Airport
Berlin, Germany
IBA Social Housing
Vienna, Austria