

Tornadoes don't discriminate.

But what about your insurance company?

Will your homeowners insurance policy rebuild your house in case of a fire or other disaster? If you live in an African American, Latino or integrated neighborhood, and your home was built before 1950, chances are the answer is no. Some insurance companies refuse to provide full replacement coverage for older homes in integrated or minority neighborhoods.

FAIR HOUSING IS THE LAW!

Check your homeowners insurance policy – if your insurance company doesn't provide fair and adequate coverage, call HUD or your local Fair Housing Center.
