RACE, LEGAL EDUCATION, AND THE LAW: A SUMMER SERIES FOR DENVER LAW STUDENTS

What does it mean for lawyers and law students to seek and support racial justice?
How can legal education prepare all lawyers to do anti-racist work?
How can we seek to create individual and institutional change so we as lawyers dismantle rather than support racially discriminatory systems?

All events are developed and led by faculty and staff of the Rocky Mountain Collective on Race, Place and Law. The series is co-sponsored by Student Affairs, the Black Law Students Association, the Latinx Law Students Association, the Asian Pacific American Law Students' Association. Outlaws, and the Student Bar Association.
