

Denver Law Pathways

Public Interest and Non-Profit Law

Suggested Courses Administrative Law Constitutional Law II Leading and Counseling Nonprofit Organizations Public Interest Lawyering Lab Social Change Lawyering	Additional Courses Basic Tax Education Law Homeless Advocacy Policy Land Conservation Transactions Lobbying Law Poverty and Low Wage Work Public Land and Resources Law Trusts and Estates
Experiential Learning Community Economic Development Clinic The Externship Program has many placements in this area
Faculty Alan Chen Justin Marceau Patience Crowder Alexi Freeman, Director of Public Interest
Public Good Distinction at Denver Law Graduating students who have demonstrated commitment to public interest law during their time at Denver Law are awarded the “Public Good Distinction” (PGD). See more information, including requirements to earn the PGD here.
Student Organizations American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) National Lawyers Guild (NLG) Amnesty International Public Interest Law Group (PILG)
Career Development & Opportunities The Office of Career Development & Opportunities (CDO) assists students and alumni in the formulation of career plans, and connects potential employers with qualified applicants. Contact the CDO to set up a meeting with a Career Consultant.
Legal Community Resources Colorado Bar Association (CBA) – Students join free CBA sections hold meetings, conduct CLE sessions, etc. When you join the CBA, consider joining this section: Business Law Section – there is a “Non-Profit Entities Subsection”	