

CÉSAR CUAUHTÉMOC GARCÍA HERNÁNDEZ

The Office of the Associate Dean for Faculty Scholarship,
The Constitutional Rights & Remedies Program, and The Rocky Mountain Collective on Race, Place & Law present

CRIMMIGRATION LAW

A Book Launch: Crimmigration Law

with author

Prof. César Cuauhtémoc García Hernández

Free & Open to the Public

Chipotle & Voodoo Doughnuts Will Be Served

Monday, November 16, 2015, 11:45-1 p.m.
Sturm College of Law Room 255

Authored by one of the nation's foremost experts, Crimmigration Law is the product of seven years of blogging and more than a dozen scholarly articles about the intersection of criminal law and immigration law. It is the first book to map the doctrine that comprises crimmigration law. The book examines how criminal adjudications affect immigration proceedings; how status as a migrant is relevant in criminal proceedings; and special enforcement issues such as border policing and state-federal law enforcement cooperation. As a whole, Crimmigration Law provides readers with a fundamental understanding of this rapidly developing and critically important area of law.

“Crimmigration Law is a must-read for law students and practitioners seeking an introduction to the complex legal doctrine and practice challenges at the merger of immigration and criminal law.” – Ingrid V. Eagly, Professor of Law, UCLA School of Law