REPORTING FOR SERIOUS STUDENT ISSUES

University of Denver protocol for dealing with student mental health issues:

If there is imminent threat of self-harm or harm to others, call Campus Safety immediately. This means ANY mention of suicide or a desire or intent to harm others. Campus Safety can be reached at 1-3000 from a campus phone or 303-871-3000.

For non-emergencies, please review the information on the Student Outreach & Support website.

If you know of a student who could benefit from our services, we encourage you to submit a Student Outreach & Support (SOS) Referral.

We also encourage you to submit an SOS Referral about any outreach you've made. When working with students, try identifying signs or stresses. These signs may include but are not limited to:

- Academic difficulty
- Difficulties with family/home environment
- Difficulties with adjusting to the college experience
- Excessive or unexplained absences
- Financial concerns
- Mental health issues
- Physical health issues
- Relationship issues
- Self-harm concerns
- Unable to locate a student
- Witness to an incident

An SOS referral is not for emergencies. If there is an immediate threat to a student (either through self-harm or interpersonal violence) or the community, please call Campus Safety at 303-871-3000, or if dialing from a campus phone, 1-3000.
