LIBRARY & TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Denver Sturm College of Law (Denver, CO)
Associate Dean of Law Library and Information Science
& Professor of the Practice of Law, 2017–present

- Manages the daily and long-term operations of the Westminster Law Library, including strategic planning & goal setting; hiring, training, & supervising library staff members; budget; collection development; instruction; research support; information access & findability; data collection/statistical reporting; space planning; and marketing & outreach.
- Serves on a variety of committees beyond those in the Westminster Law Library, including the law faculty's Clerkship Committee (2022-23), Modern Learning Committee (2018-19 & 2021-22) and Evaluation and Compensation Committee (2019-22). Also serves on the University Libraries' Assessment Committee and Leadership Council.
- Teaches Leadership for Lawyers (2-cr) and co-teaches Advanced Legal Writing & Research (3-cr).
- Appointed as Associate Dean of Law Library and Information Science in 2020. Served as Director of the Law Library from 2017-2020.

Temple University Beasley School of Law (Philadelphia, PA)
Director of the Law Library & Associate Professor of Law, 2015–2017

- Created the law library's vision and managed all aspects of its operations, including a particular emphasis on actively working to modernize library operations to better serve the needs of an increasingly digitally-driven patron base. This included increasing digital collections/electronic resources; the migration to a new integrated library system (Ex Libris' Alma); and the use of evolving technologies to enhance instruction, information identification & access, and library workflows whenever possible.

- Launched new partnerships with other departments in the law school and the university library system and served on various committees. They included the law faculty's Library Committee (chair) and Assessment/Learning Outcomes Committee, as well as the University Libraries' Assessment Committee and Integrated Library System Advisory Board.
- Established an upper-level legal research curriculum and taught an Advanced Legal Research course (3-credits) in Spring 2016 & Spring 2017.

University of Connecticut (UConn) School of Law (Hartford, CT)

Head of Reference Services & Adjunct Professor of Law, 2012–2015

- Oversaw the day-to-day operations of the reference department, including spearheading the library's research & instructional efforts and supervising both the members of the reference team and a pool of law student research assistants. Actively involved in outreach, collection development, vendor relations, skills training, developing and leading innovating projects, departmental budgeting, emergency planning, and otherwise ensuring a high level of service.
- Taught Advanced Legal Research (2-credits) in Fall 2013 and Fall 2014, and co-taught Practice Ready Research (1-credit) in Summer 2014.

Georgetown University Law Center (Washington, DC)

Reference Librarian & Adjunct Professor of Law, 2007-2012

- Provided extensive reference and research service by staffing two busy reference desks, performing individual research consultations, writing research guides, and doing research projects. Participated in basic and advanced legal research instruction, online training, clinical research instruction, the LRW liaison program, the journal liaison program, library tours, the creation of online tutorials, and other educational programs
- Taught Advanced Legal Research (2-credits) in Spring 2012, and taught Legal Research Skills for Practice (1-credit) in Summer 2008, Spring 2009, Summer 2009, Fall 2009, Summer 2010, Spring 2011, and Summer 2011.

University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law (Baltimore, MD)

Adjunct Professor of Law, 2009-2012

- Taught Introduction to Legal Research (1-credit), a mandatory, graded, freestanding course for 1L students, in Spring 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012. Used a variety of classroom models for the course, including the "flipped classroom."
