

High Country News

Sagebrush Rebellion: Evolution of a Movement

.....

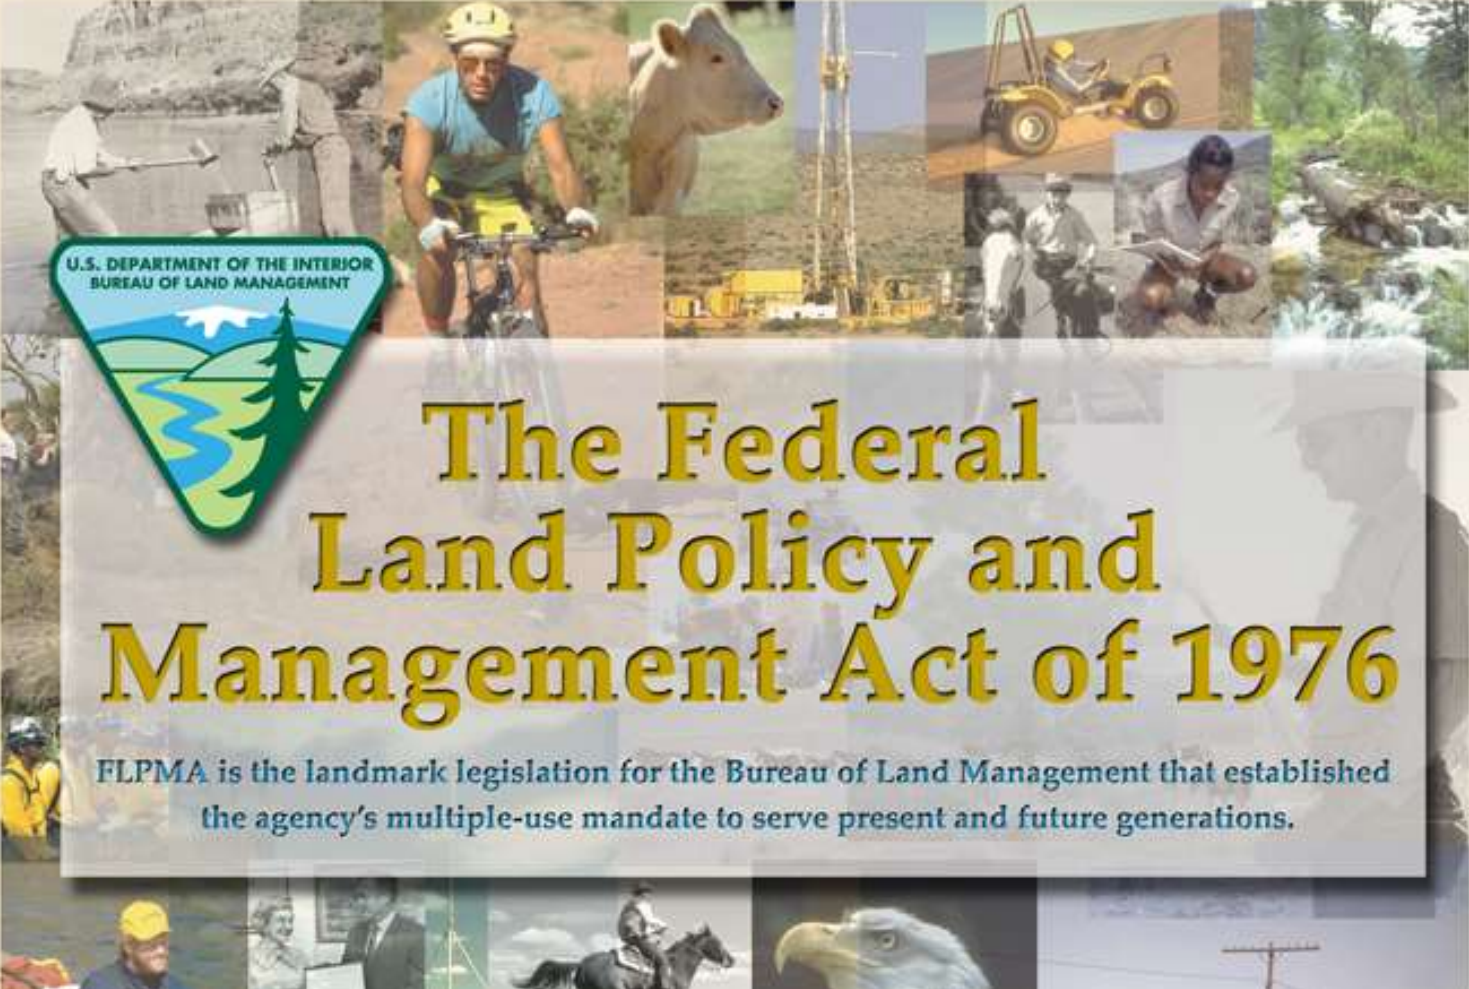

John Wesley Powell

The seed is planted.

1976

The end of the open frontier.

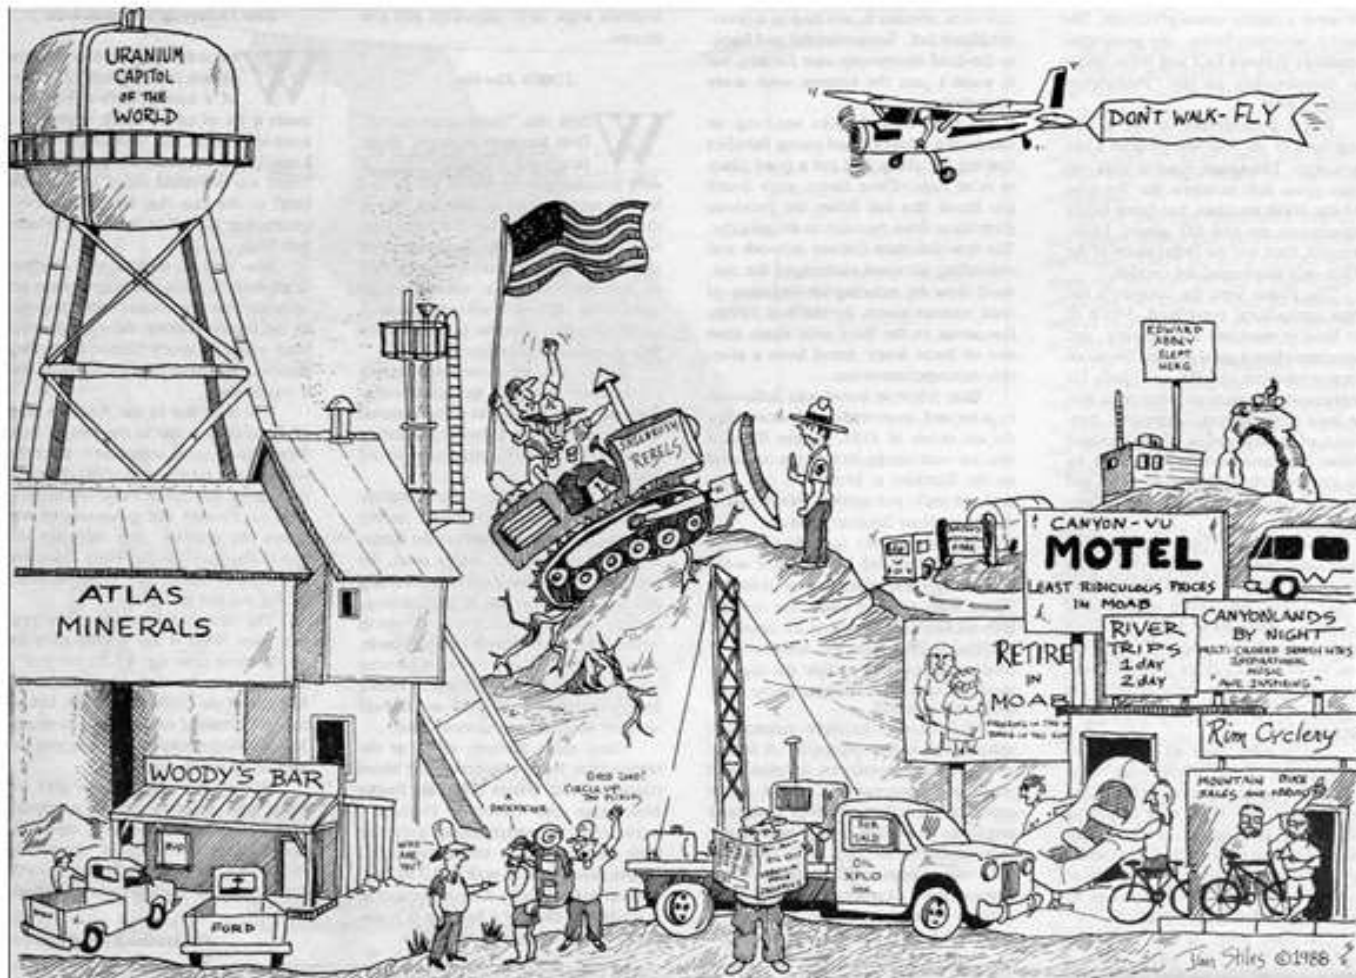

The Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976

FLPMA is the landmark legislation for the Bureau of Land Management that established the agency's multiple-use mandate to serve present and future generations.

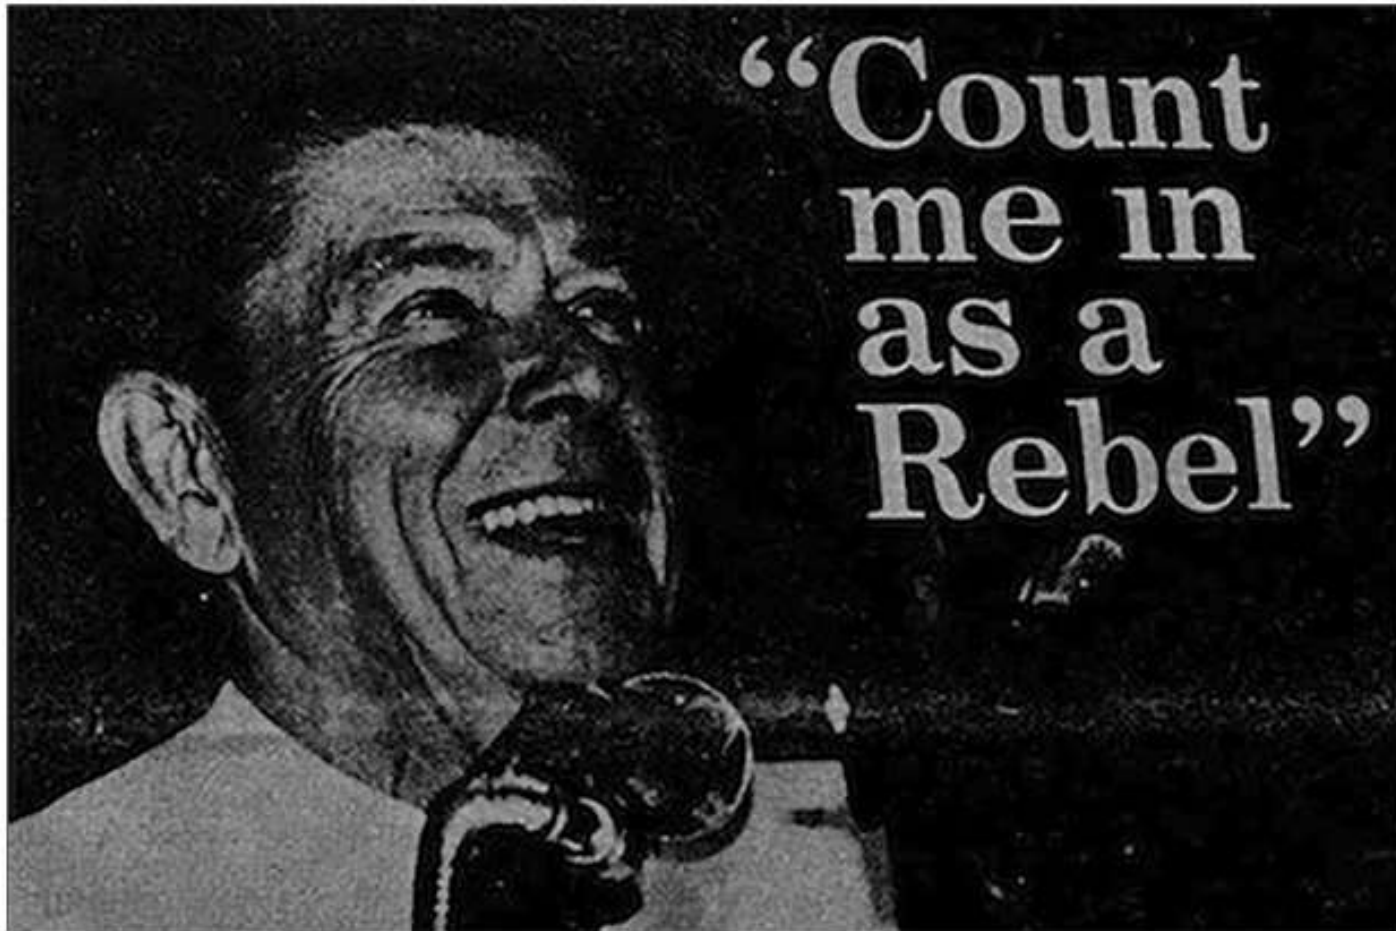

1979

Sagebrush rebellion ignites

1981

The movement gets political backing.

1990

The county movement emerges

1991

The Wayne Hage Roundup

1993

Sagebrush II: Nevada's rebellion

2003

Simmering in the sagebrush

2009

Sagebrush III: Oath Keepers founded

2012

Land transfer proposals

April 2014

Cliven Bundy Standoff

April 2015

Sugar Pine Mine Operation

January 2016

Oregon's Malheur National Wildlife Refuge occupation

