

AGENDA

MARCH 9, 2016

EXAMINING THE PAST
EXPLORING THE FUTURE

8:30am – 9:00am

Arrival and Breakfast

9:00am – 9:20am

Welcome and Overview

Susan Daggett, Director, Rocky Mountain Land Use Institute

Andy Hill, Director of Community Development, Colorado Department of Local Affairs

Drew Beckwith, Water Policy Manager, Western Resource Advocates

9:20am – 10:00am

The Land Use System

Professor John Nolon, Land Use Law Center, Pace Law School

Session will cover the basics of the Colorado land use system and reflect on the authority and power given to local governments and their land use boards.

10:00am – 10:30am

The Water Planning Process

Drew Beckwith

This session will provide an overview of water supply and water conservation planning processes used in Colorado and engage participants to comment on their local examples.

10:30am – 10:45am

Break

10:45am – 12:00pm

Land Use and Water Planning Integration

John Nolon

This session will showcase a sample of some of the water conservation strategies being used in the land use system, including the various opportunities to integrate water planning polices into the comprehensive plan, zoning, subdivision, and site plan regulations.

12:00pm – 1:00pm

Lunch

1:00pm – 2:30pm

Best Practices and Advice from the Front Range

Stu Feinglas, Water Resource Analyst, City of Westminster

Lyle Whitney, Water Conservation Supervisor, City of Aurora

David Shinneman, Community Development Director, City of Broomfield

Anita Seitz, Councilor, City of Westminster

2:30pm – 3:30pm

Group Discussion: How to Make it Happen

Drew Beckwith

- What are the opportunities for this in your community?
- What are some challenges?
- Would State legislation help?
- What resources are needed?

3:30pm – 4:00pm

Closing Remarks and Discussion of Resources