CLASS OF 2024 EMPLOYMENT STATISTICS 10 MONTHS AFTER GRADUATION

SALARY INFORMATION

Information is based on full-time salaries that were reported or publicly available.

ALL REPORTED FULL-TIME SALARIES

While we ask all graduates who are employed in full-time, long-term positions to provide their salaries, salary information is more difficult to obtain than employment status.

Our salary statistics are based on obtaining full-time, long-term salaries from 68% of the class, which were reported or publicly available.

Equation: 158 known salaries divided by 232 JD graduates in the class = 68% of the class.

This includes positions in law firms, business and industry (based on the 100 salaries reported or publicly available for graduates employed in the private sector, which represents 43% of the class.)

Equation: 100 known private sector salaries divided by 232 JD graduates in the class = 43% of the class.
