Religious Observance: Please note that part-time program weekend classes will conflict with certain important religious days in 2026-2027. The Sturm College of Law allows students to miss class and receive recordings for important religious observance. In accordance with the University's policies, students should notify their faculty as soon as possible:
<https://www.du.edu/equalopportunity/religious-accommodations> Requests for recordings should be made directly through the Office of Student Affairs using this link – and not to faculty members.
