

LUNCHTIME TALK WITH ROBIN FARRIS

Join us for a compelling lunchtime talk featuring Robin Farris; the first Black woman to receive a sentence commutation from a Colorado governor in over 30 years, and one of the longest-serving women in a Colorado state prison before receiving clemency from Governor Polis in 2022.

Learn about Robin's remarkable journey and the significance of second chances in criminal law and sentencing, as the Criminal Defense Clinic proudly hosts her in partnership with Spero Justice Center.

Date: April 15th, 2024

Time: 12:15pm – 1:30pm

Location: Sturm College of Law – Room 165

Limited seats available.
